Global Media Forum 2017

Germany's international broadcaster "Deutsche Welle" is announcing the 10th Global Media Forum to be held from 19 to 21 June 2017 in Bonn.

In 2016 more than 2.000 participants from 107 countries, among them some 550 journalists, attended the Global Media Forum in Germany. This year's conference theme will be "Identity and Diversity". Media representatives from around the globe will discuss topics such as "hate speech" and "fake news" and the blurring boundaries between our professional, national, family and private identities, increasing isolation and fear of the unknown and the role of the media and politicians in promoting diversity.

The forum is conducted in English and participants from all over the world are expected to attend. For more information, including registration details, please go to
