Falling Walls Lab Australia 2017

"Falling Walls Lab" is an ambitious interdisciplinary competition especially targeting young innovative thinkers from the agricultural, medical, economic and arts fields. Applicants are asked to present an original and socially relevant project to a selected jury within a three minute period. Bachelor and Master students, PhD candidates, junior professors and entrepreneurs are invited to apply.

The Australian part of the competition, "Falling Walls Australia 2017", will take place on 12.09.2017 at the Australian Academy of Science Shine Dome in Canberra. New Zealanders and citizens of the Cook Islands, Fiji, Kiribati, Samoa, Tonga are also invited to apply. New Zealand and South Pacific applicants will be supported by the German Embassy in Wellington and the Royal Society of New Zealand.

Applications have to be received by 12.06.2017 online (www.falling-walls.com/lab). The winner of Falling Walls Lab Australia 2017 will receive a flight ticket and accommodation costs for the Lab Final in Berlin on 08.11.2017, when the overall winner will be chosen out of 100 international participants.
